

ISEMATHOLENI INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME
VACANCY – JANUARY 2019

A rare opportunity exists for Foundation Phase student teachers, to join the internship programme of this Anglican School. St Peter's is fortunate to offer facilities equaled by few schools. The School is known for its innovative approach, the warmth of its community and its pioneering attitude to education in general.

The programme seeks to contribute to nation-building and improving education, in South Africa, by:

- Producing effective Intermediate, Senior and Foundation Phase teachers;
- Seeking to imbue its graduates with collaborative, accountable, committed and professional attitudes, as well as a growth mindset;
- Instilling in graduates the desire to live Christian values;
- Ensuring that graduates are competent in the application of the latest research-proven methodology;
- Ensuring that graduates have the maturity to deal with the emotional demands of teaching.

In order to further uplift the community, only black (includes Coloured, Indian and Asian), previously disadvantaged applicants, who meet the criteria and are from low-income families, will be considered.
